

VIGIL MECHANISM (WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY)

I. INTRODUCTION

Saka Limited (formerly known as 'Onida Saka Limited') (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") recognizes the value of transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices. As a public limited company and listed company, the integrity in financial matters of the Company and the accuracy of its financial information is paramount. The Company's financial information guides the decision of the Board of Directors of the Company (hereinafter referred to as "Board"). The shareholders of the Company and the financial markets rely on this information to take decisions. For these reasons, the Company must maintain a workplace where it can retain and treat all complaints concerning serious misconduct, i.e. conduct which results in violation of law by the Company or in a substantial mismanagement of the Company, its resources, unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company's code of conduct or ethics policy, questionable accounting practices, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. The employees should be able to raise these concerns free of any discrimination, retaliation or harassment. Therefore, it is the policy of the Company to encourage employees, when they reasonably believe that such serious misconduct has occurred or are occurring, to report those concerns to the Company's management as described below.

All reports will be taken seriously and will be promptly investigated. The specific action taken in any particular case depends on the nature of gravity of the conduct or circumstances reported and the quality of the information provided. Where any serious instance has occurred, those matters will be corrected and if appropriate, the persons responsible will be disciplined.

II. APPLICABILITY

The Vigil Mechanism (Whistle Blower Policy) is applicable to all employees of the Company irrespective of any grade/ category/ destination.

III. REPORTING

If any of the employees have a reason to believe that they have become aware of such serious misconduct, they must immediately report those facts to their immediate superior or directly to the Compliance Officer of the Company. The concerned employee may then be requested to document a report in writing.

If such concerned employee believes that he/she has been subjected to discrimination, retaliation or harassment for having made a report under this policy, the concerned employee must immediately report those facts to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee. It is imperative that the matter be brought to the management's attention promptly so that any concern of discrimination, retaliation or harassment can be investigated and addressed promptly and appropriately.

IV. INVESTIGATION

All the complaints under this policy will be promptly and thoroughly investigated and all information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary to the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with applicable law. All employees and supervisors have a duty to cooperate in the investigation of reports of such serious misconduct. In addition, an employee shall be subject to disciplinary action, including the termination of their employment, if the employee fails to co-operate in an investigation, or deliberately provides false information during an investigation. If at the conclusion of its investigation, the Company determines that a violation of policy has been occurred, the Company will take effective remedial action commensurate with the severity of the offence. This action may include disciplinary action against the accused party, upto and including termination. Reasonable and necessary steps will also be taken to prevent any further violations of policy.

V. DISCRIMINATION, RETALIATION OR HARASSMENT

The Company strictly prohibits any discrimination, retaliation or harassment against any person who reports incidents of such serious misconduct, based on the person's reasonable belief that such misconduct occurred. The Company also strictly prohibits any discrimination, retaliation or harassment against any person who participates in an investigation of complaints about such serious misconduct.

Any complaint that any managers, supervisors or employees are involved in discrimination, retaliation or harassment related to the reporting or investigation of serious misconduct, shall be promptly and thoroughly investigated in accordance with the Company's investigation procedures. If a complaint of discrimination, retaliation or harassment is substantiated, appropriate actions, upto and including discharge, will be taken.

VI. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS

All documents related to the reporting, investigation and enforcement of this policy, as a result of serious misconduct or of the discrimination, retaliation or harassment of an employee shall be kept in accordance with the Company's record retention policy and applicable law.

VII. ADDITIONAL ENFORCEMENT INFORMATION

The Company's policies and practices have been developed as a guide to our legal and ethical responsibilities to achieve and maintain the highest business standards.
